

Time	Wed 24th	Thurs 25th	Fri 26th
9.15-10.00	Welcome by Chair of Conference Guest Speaker: Tim Lang (bilingual)	Guest speaker: Lois Mansfield (bilingual)	Guest speaker: Adam Jones (Welsh)
10.15-11.30	Towards a Community Food Strategy for Wales (bilingual)	The importance of livestock in integrated farming systems	Framing food as medicine to increase resilience for future generations
11.45-13.00	Taking back control	Farming for the future: Why GMOs aren't green	Field scale vegetable production for new entrants, experienced growers and as a farm diversification opportunity
13.15-13.45	Lunchtime: Welsh Government food and farming update	Lunchtime: A vision for our farm: Black Mountains College	Lunchtime: Wales and global responsibility
14.00-15.15	Food democracy - the power of citizenship (bilingual)	Agroforestry in the uplands: The farmer-friendly tree planting?	Growing indigenous fruit and nuts (bilingual)
15.30-16.45	Measuring sustainability	Co-operative working: On farm, between farms and through food hubs	Building the next generation of farmers and growers
17.00-17.30	Small group chat	Small group chat	16.45-17.00 Closing (bilingual)
Evening	19.00-20.30 External Event: Land Use Innovation Lab	19.30-20.30 Words and music with Harriet Earis and Tom Bullough	